PREFACE

All praise be to Allāh ﷻ, the Lord of the worlds. Salutation and Peace on the best of creation, the sublime in character, our Master Muḥammad ﷺ, the seal of the Messengers and Prophets, and upon his pure and chaste family, and his companions, the stars of guidance and emulation.

The reality of Islam is the complete submission to the command of Allāh ﷻ. The commandments of Islam apply to both the outward and inward state of the muslim. One of the central and most important aspects of Islam is the sufi teaching also known as taṣawwuf. As Islamic jurisprudence, known as fiqh, teaches the muslim how the outward worship, such as ṣalāh and ṣawm should be performed, in like manner, taṣawwuf also teaches the Muslim how to internalise the worship through states of the self or naḥs. In short, the main purpose of taṣawwuf is the purification of one's intentions and the humility in ones conduct with The Creator and His creation. It is important to create a balance between fiqh and taṣawwuf in one's life, as one cannot exist without the other.

Imam Malik ibn Anas قَدَسَ اللهُ بِرُؤُوسِهِ (93 AH – 179 AH) famously said of taṣawwuf:

"Whoever studies taṣawwuf without fiqh will become a heretic, and whoever studies fiqh without taṣawwuf will be corrupted, and whoever combines both will reach reality (the truth)."

There is no taṣawwuf without fiqh, as there is no other way to understand the commandments of Allāh ﷻ relating to worship. Fiqh is deficient without taṣawwuf, as worship without sincerity has no meaning.

As we are commanded to pray our five daily prayers and fast the blessed month of Ramaḍān, so we should also strive to become sincere in our worship, strive to suppress and control the desires of the body and realise that our salvation rests with the true understanding of Islam.

Imam Malik قَدَسَ اللهُ بِرُؤُوسِهِ said about himself that he knew many ḥadīth and had a great deal of knowledge that he never spoke about, nor did he mention it. This was the inner knowledge, or inner reality, that is termed ʿIlm al-Bāṭin (the knowledge of the heart).

This is beautifully elucidated in the following ḥadīth:

*Harith ibn Malik al-Anṣārī passed by the Prophet ﷺ who asked him, "How are you this morning, O Harith?" and he replied, "This morning I am a true believer in Allāh." The Prophet ﷺ said: "Take care of what you say, for everything has a proof to it, so what is the proof of your belief?" He said: "I have turned myself away from this world by keeping awake at night and staying thirsty by day; and I can almost see the Throne of my Lord in full view before me, and I can see the people of the Garden visiting each other, and the people of the Fire wailing to each other." The Prophet ﷺ said, "O Harith! You have realized (the truth), therefore cling to it." Some versions add, "(This is) a believer whose heart Allāh has illumined."*¹

This book outlines the teachings of the Naqshbandī Mujaddidī Saifi Silsila (spiritual path), and serves as a guide for students of this discipline. Within it are the daily practices of all four spiritual paths (Naqshbandī, Chishtī, Qādirī and Suhrawardī), as transmitted and taught by the eminent teacher and scholar, Ḥaḍrat Imam-e-Khurasani Akhondzadah Saif-ur-Rahman Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ. In particular the teaching of the Naqshbandī Mujaddidī Saifi path, that is dependant on the focus (Tawajju) of a Murshid-e Kāmil (accomplished master).

Only Allāh ﷻ is the Granter of success. Any mistakes and shortcomings in compiling this work are mine, and the praise for its merit belongs to Allāh ﷻ alone. May Allāh ﷻ shower His mercy on all who read this book, and increase in us the love for Him and His Beloved, Ḥaḍrat Sarwar-e-Kawnayn Syeduna Muḥammad ﷺ. Āmīn.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We have been taught by the Beloved of Allāh ﷺ, Ḥaḍrat Sarwar-e-Kawnayn Syeduna Muḥammad ﷺ that “One who does not thank people does not give thanks to Allāh, either”². Therefore, I would like to thank Allāh ﷻ by extending sincere gratitude to all who have played a pivotal role in the compilation of this work. Most importantly, my beloved Murshid-e-Kāmil, the honourable Dr. Peer Syed Muhammad Ali Raza Bukhari Al-Saifi Sahib, who has dedicated his life to teaching and transmitting sacred knowledge and thereby fulfilling an immense trust. It is with mercy and great favour from Allāh ﷻ that I have been able to sit at their feet to learn this branch of Islam and illuminate my heart in their ṣuḥbah (company).

Dr. Peer Syed Muhammad Ali Raza Bukhari Al-Saifi Sahib was born into a very pious and noble family in Basahan Sharif, Azad Kashmir, Pakistan. Peer sahib is from the Ahlulbayt (the descendants of our Beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ). His honourable father Ḥaḍrat Peer Syed Abul Hassan Muhammad Saeed Shah Bukhari Sahib is a Kāmil walī whose lineage descends through Ḥaḍrat Imam Hussain عليه السلام. His honourable late mother was also a Kamal waliya, whose lineage goes back to Ḥaḍrat Imam Hassan عليه السلام, through Ḥaḍrat Ghaws al-A‘ẓam, Shaykh Sayyid ‘Abd al-Qādir al-Jīlānī قدس الله سره. This gives Peer Muhammad Ali Raza Bukhari Sahib the Honour of being a Hassani and Hussaini Syed.

Peer Sahib has reached great heights in taṣawwuf under the guidance and teaching of Ḥaḍrat Baba Naseemullah Al-Saifi Sahib, and His eminence, the late Ḥaḍrat Imam-e-Khurasani Akhondzadah Peer Saif-ur-Raḥmān (Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib). Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib was the Mujaddid (reviver of the Sunnah) of his time, and from whom the silsila takes its name today. Peer Sahibs teachers were unanimous in giving him great respect, love and consideration despite his youth. As an expression of extreme affection and high regard, Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib attributed many accolades to Peer Sahib. Amongst some of those endearments are Shah-e-Shahan (King of Kings), Ashiq ast Mashooq ast (You are my Lover and Beloved) and Jazbatun Min Jazbatirrahman (A Spark from Divine Spark).

Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib was certain that Peer Sahib would reach great spiritual heights and through whom Allāh ﷻ would transmit fayz (Divine Emanation) all over the world. Today Peer Sahib can be considered as a shining example of excellent character and conduct, which is reflected in his mission to promote the teachings of the Holy Qur’ān and Sunnah.

I am indebted to Shaykh ul Qur’ān, Mufti Peer Abid Hussain Saifi Sahib, whose work “Mamulaat-e-Saifia” is the foundation for this work.

I dedicate this work to my parents and my teachers, through whom I came to know right from wrong. May Allāh ﷻ bless them, and shower His mercy on them all, and all those souls that have passed from this world in the state of Īmān.

INTRODUCTION

A child comes into this world with inherent qualities and a natural disposition which is inclined towards right action and with the understanding that Allāh ﷻ is The Creator, and the only one worthy of worship. This is referred to in the Arabic language as the state of fiṭrah. As the child grows up, if this natural disposition is encouraged to express itself, the child will naturally submit to the will of Allāh ﷻ and accept Islam, both as a belief structure and as an outward way of life. However, the inverse is equally likely if the child is subjected to the dictates of corrupt thought and practice. It is reported by Abu Huraira ؓ that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said:

“No baby is born but upon fiṭrah (as a Muslim). It is his parents who make him a Jew or a Christian or a Polytheist.”³

So, by definition, one who submits willingly to the dīn of Allāh ﷻ and therefore accepts the Sharī‘ah transmitted by Allāh’s Messenger, our beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, has been able to do so with the help of these inherent qualities that Allāh ﷻ has bestowed to the whole of mankind.

For those fortunate individuals that are guided towards Islam have an uphill battle with the negative inward influence that originates from the Nafs, and the negative outward influence that originates from the Shayṭān. Both of these forces are intent on destroying those qualities which define a true believer (Mu’min). A Mu’min is a reflection of the prophetic example, both in the outward appearance and conduct, and in the inner reality that has at its heart the profound realisation that Allāh is one, the only deity worthy of worship. The whole concept of Islam and the reality of the Mu’min are beautifully described in the Ḥadīth that is famously referred to as the Ḥadīth of Jibreel ⁴.

Needless to say, that to become a Mu'min, one must wage a war against the Nafs and the Shayṭān. Succumbing to the dictates of either of these two negative forces results in the blackening of the heart, which in turn results in inner blindness to the true purpose of one's creation. The reality of this statement is better explained in the Ḥadīth:

“When a slave commits a sin, a black spot appears on his heart. But if he gives it up, seeks forgiveness and repents, his heart will be cleansed. But if he repeats it, the blackness will increase until it overwhelms his heart.” ⁵

In order to be able to fight the Nafs and the Shayṭān, one must have the ability to first recognise the enemy and its advances, and then have the knowledge of how to safeguard against the attack. The progeny of Ḥaḍrat Adam ﷺ has been engaged in this struggle

⁴ Providing commentary on this Ḥadīth is beyond the scope of this work

since the beginning. The experience of our rightly guided ancestors has taught us a great deal about how the inner struggle should be conducted.

The people of Baṣīrah are those whose perception is guided by wisdom. Such people have struck a balance between that which is apparent (Ẓāhir) and is understood with the physical faculties, such as sight, and that which is internal (Bāṭin). The Bāṭin can only be understood with the internal sight attributed to the heart. The Islamic science of taṣawwuf is the fruits of their labour. It has been preserved by effort and careful transmission from teacher to student in a continuous chain from our beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, all the way to the present day. Its purpose is to provide a process that can be followed to control the demands of the Nafs and the Shayṭān. It teaches the traveller how to achieve excellence in worship (ʾIhsān). In short, to worship Allāh ﷻ as though you see Him, for if you do not see Him then truly, He sees you.

From the Nafs stem negative qualities such as anger, hatred, jealousy, greed and lust and are the primary cause of many sins. The accumulation of these sins, have a major effect on the heart. This in turn, affects the body as a whole. This is better explained in the Ḥadīth:

*“Verily, in the body there is a piece of flesh, if it is sound the entire body is sound, and if it is corrupt then the entire body will be corrupt, indeed it is the heart.”*⁶

In eliminating these negative characteristics, the person is able to cleanse the heart and begin the journey back to the former state of Fīṭrah. So, by definition, if negative characteristics are suppressed, or better still, eliminated, the void that this creates will then be filled by the opposing positive characteristics of patience, love, sincerity and humility.

We know from the glorious Qur’ān that Allāh ﷻ has created us for his worship.

*“And I have not created the jinn and the men except that they worship Me”.*⁷

⁶ Sahih Bukhari, Sahih Muslim

⁷ Holy Qur’ān 51:56

Worship can take many forms. We learn from the people of Baṣīrah that the most affective way to remove the blackness from the heart is by fulfilling all obligatory worship, followed by voluntary remembrance through the Dhikr of Allāh ﷻ.

The Holy Qur'ān emphasises the importance of the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ. The following verse is a powerful reminder that one should engage in frequent Dhikr where Allāh ﷻ says:

*“Oh ye who believe! Remember Allāh with much remembrance. And Glorify Him morning and evening”.*⁸

Allāh ﷻ also says:

*“Those who believe and whose hearts find satisfaction in the remembrance of Allāh, for verily in the remembrance of Allāh do hearts find satisfaction”.*⁹

On the authority of Abu Huraira ؓ, who said that the Beloved Prophet ﷺ said, Allāh ﷻ says:

⁸ Holy Qur'ān 33:41-42

⁹ Holy Qur'ān 13:28

*“I am as my servant thinks of Me, and I am with him when he remembers Me. When he remembers Me in himself, I remember him in Myself, and when he mentions Me in an assembly, I mention him in a better assembly. When he draws nearer to Me by the span of a hand, I draw nearer to him by the length of an arm, and when he draws nearer to Me by an arms length, I draw nearer to him by two arms’ span, and when he comes to Me walking, I come to him running.”*¹⁰

This Ḥadīth which is authentic by consensus indicates the immense merit of remembrance, and how small works by the servant are met with great Divine rewards.

In order to be successful, one must seek the guidance of a person with Baṣīrah. In South Asia, such a person is referred to as a Kāmil Murshid (accomplished master). The word “accomplished” is used to signify that they have also successfully travelled the spiritual path under another accomplished master, and have attained the closeness of Allāh ﷻ.

¹⁰ Related by Sahih Bukhari, Muslim, At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah

To reiterate, the most successful formula for someone travelling this path is to first fulfil the obligatory worship, and then add to it by voluntary acts, whilst adopting as much of the Sunnah as possible. This, along with the sincere love for the Murshid, increases the fayz (Divine Emanation) the student will receive. Sitting in the company of the Murshid (ṣuḥbah) and partaking in Dhikr gatherings will allow the student to benefit greatly. Ḥaḍrat Anas ؓ reported that the Beloved Prophet ﷺ said:

“When you pass by the meadows of the Garden (jannah), graze in them!” The companions said “Oh Messenger of Allāh, what are the meadows of the Garden?” And He replied “the circles of Dhikr” ¹¹

¹¹ At-Tirmidhi

Background

Like any Islamic discipline, such as 'Aqīdah, Fiqh, and Ḥadīth, a student must have a teacher, or master, from whom to take the knowledge, one who has himself taken it from a master and so on, in a continuous chain of masters back to the Beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ. Such spiritual transmission from a master to student, in an unbroken chain of masters, is known as a Silsila (Ṭarīqa, or Spiritual Path). There are four main Salāsil commonly found today, namely the Naqshbandī, Chishtī, Qādirī and Suhrawardī.

The Saifi Silsila is not new. Whenever there has been a revival of the teachings of a Silsila, the name of the reviver, or Mujaddid, has been included in the title to indicate the chain of transmission. The Naqshbandī Silsila was originally known as the Ṣiddīqī Silsila since at the very beginning it was transmitted from the Blessed Heart of our Master and the Best Of Creation, the Beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ to the first Khalīfa of Islam, Ḥaḍrat Abū Bakr aṣ-Ṣiddīq ؓ. In like manner, as the Silsila was transmitted from heart to heart it eventually became known as “Silsila ‘Aliyyah Naqshbandīa” due to the great reviver and mujaddid, Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā’ al-dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ. In like manner, when the Silsila reached Imam Rabbani Ḥaḍrat Imām Rabbānī, Mujaddid Alf Thānī Shaykh Ahmad Farooqi Sirhindi قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ it became known as “Silsila ‘Aliyyah Naqshbandīa Mujaddidīa”. When the Silsila travelled further still and reached Ḥaḍrat Khwāja Muḥammad Ma ‘ṣūm Awwal قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ, it became known as “Silsila ‘Aliyyah Naqshbandīa Mujaddidīa Ma ‘ṣūmia”. Once more, with the great reviver Ḥaḍrat Mawlānā Muḥammad Hāshim al-Samangānī قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ, it became known as “Silsila ‘Aliyyah Naqshbandīa Mujaddidīa Ma ‘ṣūmia Hāshimia”. The current day reviver and Mujaddid of the Silsila is none other than His Eminence, Ḥaḍrat Imam-e Khurasani Akhondzadah Saif-ur-Raḥmān Peer-e-Archi Mubarak Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْهُ. As a result, the Silsila is called “Silsila ‘Aliyyah Naqshbandīa Saifia” for short.

Subtle Centres of Consciousness (laṭā'if)

In order to understand the لطائف (laṭā'if), we must first understand the human being. We are all made of matter, and live amongst material beings. Beings that are made of matter consist of the seven heavens, the Kursī, and the 'Arsh. These nine classes of beings are one within the other, like the layers of an onion. The outermost layer is the 'Arsh. Each layer is larger than the one within it. It is like the greatness of the ocean in comparison to a drop of water. There is no matter outside the ninth layer, which is the 'Arsh. Classes of material being that consist of the nine layers reside in the realm of 'Ālam-e Khalq, or the world of creation. This refers to the entire material, physical universe that we perceive with our senses. Hence the building block of Aalam-e-Khalq is matter.

That creation which is not composed of matter is in the realm of Aalam-e-Amr. This creation is the result of Allāh's command, "Be", as explained by the āyah:

*“His command (Amr) is only when He intends a thing He says to it ‘Be’ (Kun) and it is.”*¹²

This āyah karima explains how the realm of ‘Amr’ is instantaneous and absolute, free from the chain of causation.

The building block of the Aalam-e-Amr is called ‘latīfa’. Hence Aalam-e-Amr is made of various laṭā’if. Out of these, five have been given to man.

The human being is a combination of body and spirit. The spirit springs from the realm of Amr, and the body grows in the realm of Khalq. As the body is composed of organs, so is the spirit composed of laṭā’if. Both of these realms belong to ‘Rabb’ as is explained in the āyah:

“Your Lord (Rabb) is God. Who created the heavens and the earth in six days (periods) and is firmly established on the Throne (of authority). He throws the veil of night over the day, each seeking the other in rapid succession. It was He who created the sun, the moon and the stars all governed by laws under His command (Amr). His is the creation (Khalq), His is the command (Amr). Blessed be God, Lord of the universe.”¹³

¹² Holy Qur’ān 36:82

Aalam-e-Amr

As mentioned earlier, Aalam-e-Amr is the creation that has no origin, and was brought into existence by the command of كُن (kun). For instance, the human soul, the laṭā'if and so on. Aalam-e-Amr is positioned over the 'Arsh. The five laṭā'if, of Aalam-e-Amr are:

1. قلب (qalb) Heart
2. روح (rūḥ) Spirit
3. سرّ (sirr) Secret
4. خفی (khafī) Hidden
5. اخفی (akhfā) Most Hidden

The actual root of each latīfa is located over the 'Arsh. However, Allāh ﷻ with His Divine power has placed these laṭā'if in certain points in the human body as a trust from Him, so that one can become close to Allāh ﷻ through their activation. Aalam-e-Amr is also known as Aalam-e-Gaib, Aalam-e-Arwah, Aalam-e-Lahut, and Aalam-e-Hairat.

¹³ Holy Qur'ān 7:54

Aalam-e-Khalq

Matter originating from the four elements, Earth, Air, Fire and Water is known as Aalam-e-Khalq.

The five laṭā'if from Aalam-e-Khalq are:

1. Nafs The Self
2. Bad Air
3. Ma' Water
4. Nar Fire
5. Khak Earth

The root of all five Aalam-e-Khalq laṭā'if are in the five Aalam-e-Amr laṭā'if as follows:

- The root of Nafs is in Qalb
- The root of Bad is in Ruh
- The root of Ma' is in Sirr
- The root of Nar is in Khafi
- The root of Khak is in Akhfa

Aalam-e-Khalq is also known as Aalam-e-Asbab, Aalam-e-Ajsam, Aalam-e-Shahadat and Aalam-e-Nasoot.

The Position and Association of each latifa

The position of each latifa, the prophetic source of the fayz, and the associated colour.

Bāyah with a Murshid of the Naqshbandī, Qādirī, Chishtī, Soharwardhi, Saifi Silsila is a condition that must be met, before permission is granted for this Dhikr.

The Dhikr of each latīfa is the same. This is the Dhikr of Allāh ﷻ name الله 'Allāh' with taṣawwur-e-murshid (picturing ones Murshid in the mind).

Brief Explanation of the laṭā`if

latīfa Qalb,

By doing Dhikr on this latīfa, one forgets everything except The Creator, and becomes absorbed and engrossed in the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ. When this latīfa receives fayz and starts to function, carelessness and lust is removed.

latīfa Ruh,

When this latīfa receives fayz and starts to function, anger and rage are suppressed and the person starts to reform his or her character, experiencing tranquillity as a result.

latīfa Sirr,

The generous spending in matters of the dīn and becoming more concerned about the hereafter is the effect of the fayz on this latīfa. This helps to increase belief, trust and Taqwā (complete reliance) in Allāh ﷻ. This is the position of observation (seeing) and contemplation for the people of Kashf, where all desires and greed are eliminated. Kashf can be described as exposing the heart to metaphysical illuminations or “inspirations” unattainable by other people.

latīfa Khafi,

Activation of this latīfa results in extraordinary states of awareness and also eliminates envy, stinginess, hatred and back-biting.

latīfa Akhfa,

This is the position of Wilāyat-e-Muḥammadiya ﷺ. The activation of this latīfa results in the Dhikr starting without reason and without any difficulty. It also creates a feeling and sense of closeness to Allāh ﷻ. fayz on this latīfa eliminates diseases of the heart, such as arrogance, pride and self-loving. Tranquillity and contentment are attained.

latīfa Nafsi,

This is the first latīfa of Aalam-e-Khalq. Its activation results in the suppression of the ego and one’s pride. The qualities of humbleness and modesty are manifested. The interest and the eagerness to do Dhikr increases.

latīfa Qaalbi,

This is the second latīfa of Aalam-e-Khalq. In reality this is the latīfa-e-Arba'ah i.e. composed of the four elements, Air, Water, Fire and Earth. The effect of the activation of this latīfa is felt in all areas of the body, but only once a person becomes completely free from the negative attributes linked to the material body, and the connection with worldly matters. Remember that this state can only be reached once all previous laṭā'if have been mastered.

The Method of Nafy wa-Ithbāt

This is the process of negating everything except Allāh ﷻ by repeating لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ (Lā ilāha illā Allāh).

This process consists of two parts, the first part (لَا إِلَهَ) “Lā ilāha”) is to negate everything other than Allāh ﷻ, and the second part (إِلَّا اللَّهُ) “illā Allāh”) is to affirm Allāh ﷻ.

It is important for the student to place the tongue against the roof of the mouth, have both lips closed, with the top teeth meeting the bottom as would be at rest.

Next, whilst holding the breath, starting at the navel begin the kalima with لَا “lā” and take it up to the crown of the head towards latīfa-e-Qaalbi. Next take إِلَ “ilāha” to the right shoulder and then using اللَّهُ “illā Allāh”, passing it through the remaining laṭā ’if to strike the latīfa-e-Qalb, so that the activity reaches the remaining Aalam-e-Amr laṭā ’if. Repeat this cycle and keep count using a tasbeih (prayer beads). When you can no longer hold your breath, breathe out on an odd number of cycles (i.e. 11, 21, 31 etc), at the same time completing the Kalima مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُولُ اللَّهِ “Muḥammadur Rasūlu-llāh” silently whilst focusing on latīfa-e-Akhfa, followed by the the silent dua:

إِلَهِي أَنْتَ مَقْصُودِي وَرِضَاكَ مَطْلُوبِي أَعْطِنِي مَحَبَّةَ ذَاتِكَ وَمَعْرِفَةَ صِفَاتِكَ.

“Ilāhī anta maqṣūdī wa-riḍā’aka maṭlūbī, a ‘īnī maḥabbata dhātika wa-ma ‘rifata ṣifātika.”

Furthermore, on starting with the Kalima لَا “lā”, one of the following four meanings must be kept in mind:

لَا مَعْبُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā ma ‘būda illā Allāh”

None worshipped except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَقْصُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā maqṣūda illā Allāh”

None intended except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَوْجُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā mawjūda illā Allāh”

None present except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَطْلُوبَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā maṭlūba illā Allāh”

None desired except Allāh ﷻ.

After a period of effort and striving, these meanings will become entrenched in the heart. The following is a visual representation of the method for Nafy wa-Ithbāt.

Meditation (Murāqaba)

Murāqaba means to wait for fayz. Do this by turning your attention to a particular latīfa and wait for the fayz to come from Allāh ﷻ, onto that latīfa.

It must be remembered that the fayz one receives originates from the Essence (dhāt). Namely, the knower, “Allāh”. It is transmitted through an unbroken chain from the Beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, through the remaining Ulul’azm Anbiyā’ ﷺ (Greatest Prophets) and Awliyā’ of the Naqshbandī Saiḥī Ṭarīqa (Pīrān-e Kibār), to the Murshid, who then transmits it to the student. One must not forget that this is the process by which fayz is received when performing the murāqaba.

Whilst with the eyes, ears and mouth closed, focus completely towards Allāh ﷻ for the fayz. One’s attention must be towards Allāh ﷻ and nothing else, all other thoughts should be removed from the heart. Be aware that Allāh ﷻ is always watching us, as is mentioned in the famous Ḥadīth, known more commonly as the Ḥadīth of Jibraeel ﷺ, where it is mentioned that we should worship Allāh ﷻ as though we see Him. And if we cannot see Him, then surely, He sees us. Therefore, one should turn to Him with the knowledge that He is aware of our inner most thoughts and intentions. This is the origin of the murāqaba, i.e. to turn one's attention towards Allāh ﷻ, as His attention is always towards us.

Preconditions and instructions for the murāqaba

1. During the murāqaba one must be in a state of complete cleanliness with wuḍū'.
2. The person must belong to “Ahl al-Sunnah wa-l-Jamā 'ah” and must have bāyah with a Kāmil Murshid, from whom they must have prior permission for the murāqaba.
3. Begin the murāqaba after the completion of all seven (7) laṭā 'if. In addition, the Dhikr must have started and the person must be able to do Nafy wa-Ithbāt.
4. Each murāqaba should be repeated for a minimum of five (5) days, or as the Murshid has advised regarding number of days.
5. Each murāqaba should be a minimum of twenty (20) minutes per day.

6. The person doing the murāqaba must make sure that they do not go against its traditions and etiquettes.
7. During the murāqaba, if the person becomes sleepy, it is not necessary to perform the wuḍū' straight away.
8. During the murāqaba, any experiences must only be revealed to the Murshid.
9. It is very important not to become careless or lazy of the set number of days of the particular murāqaba.
10. The person should wait for the fayz and tawajju from the Murshid at all times. In fact, the person should take full advantage of the Murshids attention.
11. The niyyah (intention) of the murāqaba must be memorized and read in Fārsī (Persian). This is because Ḥaḍrat Imām Rabbānī, Mujaddid Alf Thānī Shaykh Ahmad Farooqi Sirhindi قَدِّسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْحِهِ has mentioned the niyyah's in Fārsī and has refrained from translating them into other languages due to the possibility of changing the meaning of words which can result in the fayz stopping. We have provided a description of the murāqaba niyyah for a general understanding only. The niyyah itself MUST be made in Fārsī, as the change in meaning could stop the spiritual progress of the person performing the murāqaba.

Intentions (Wuqūf-e Murāqaba)

۱: نیت وقوف مراقبہء قلب:

فیض می آید از ذاتِ بیچون بلطفی قلبی من بواسطہ پیرانِ کبار

Sayings of Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī قدس الله سره

Some of the sayings of Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قدس الله سره are covered here.

It is important to follow and keep to the following etiquettes and good manners.

Nazar bar Qadam* (Watching one's step)

The seeker should keep his attention on his feet when walking. Looking upon the steps means that the seeker, in coming and going, looks upon the top of his feet and thereby his attention is not scattered by looking at what he should not look at. When the beginner's attention is taken by shapes and colours outside of himself, his state of remembering leaves him and is ruined, and he is kept from his objective. This is because the new seeker does not have the power of the "remembrance of the heart," so when his sight falls upon things, his heart loses its collectedness, and his mind becomes scattered.

Hūsh dar Dam* (Awareness in the Breath / Awareness in the Moment) Or Wuquf-e-Zamani
(Awareness of One's State of Mind / Time)

Every breath which is exhaled from within must be exhaled with awareness and presence of mind and so that the mind does not stray into forgetfulness.

The seeker should be conscious of each breath to see whether it is for the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ or whether it is negligent of Him.

Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ said:

“The foundation of our work is in the breath. The more that one is able to be conscious of one's breathing, the stronger is one's inner life. It is a must for everyone to safeguard his breath in the time of his inhalation and exhalation and further, to safeguard his breath in the interval between the inhalation and exhalation.”

Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ said that this consciousness is the maker and guide of the seeker. It means to be attentive to one's state of mind at any given moment, and to know whether it is a cause for giving thanks or for repenting.

It means to keep count of one's temporal states. To distinguish Dhākir (one in remembrance), from Ghāfil (absence). Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوحِهِ describes this as “self-possession” or “mindfulness”.

In wuquf-e-zamani the seeker remains constantly aware of his changing states. Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوحِهِ explained:

“Wuquf-e-zamani is the work of the traveller on the Way: to be attentive of his state, and to know whether it is a cause for giving thanks or for repenting, to give thanks while feeling spiritual elation, and to repent while in spiritual dryness or contraction.”

Safar Dar Waṭan* (Spiritual Travelling in the Homeland)

Your spiritual journey is towards your homeland. Remember you are travelling from a world of illusion to a world of reality. The wayfarer travels from the world of creation to the world of the Creator.

The Journey Home is the transformation that brings man out of his subjective dream state, so that he can fulfil his divine destiny.

From the Rashaḥāt-i 'Ayn al-Ḥayāt: “The journey home” refers to that journey which the seeker makes within his human nature. In other words, travel from the qualities of humankind toward the angelic qualities, moving from blameworthy qualities to laudable ones.

Ḥaḍrat Imām Rabbānī, Mujaddid Alf Thānī Shaykh Ahmad Farooqi Sirhindi قدس الله سره (d. 1624) said:

“This blessed expression “travelling in the homeland” means travelling within the self. The source of its results lies in putting the final practice at the beginning, which is one of the characteristics of the Naqshbandī Ṭarīqa. Furthermore, although this inner travelling can also be found in other tarīqas, in those it is found only in the end after the “travelling on the horizons”, referring to the Qur’ānic verse¹⁸

“We will show them Our signs on the horizons and within their selves until they know He is the Real”.

“Travelling on the horizons” is travelling from place to place. At the beginning of the journey, it can mean leaving home to find a guide or teacher. This happened in former generations where the wayfarer became settled in a place, and became accustomed and familiar with its people. They then took on travelling in order to break down habit and comfort and cut themselves off from fame and recognition. They would choose travel in order to experience complete emptying.

The seeker should look at his Nafs to see if any love for anything besides Allāh ﷻ still remains. If so, then he must repent.

¹⁸ Holy Qur’an 41:53

Khalwat Dar Anjuman (Solitude in the crowd)

There are two kinds of retreat. One is the outward kind in which the seeker, far from people, sits alone in his cell until he comes into contact with the spiritual world. This result comes about because the external senses withdraw themselves and the inner senses extend themselves to signs from the spiritual world.

The second kind of retreat is the hidden one, where the seeker is inwardly witnessing the secrets of the Real while he is outwardly surrounded by people. Khalwat Dar Anjuman is of this second type of retreat: outwardly to be with people, inwardly to be with Allāh ﷻ.

In all your outer activities remain inwardly free. Learn not to identify with anything whatsoever.

When Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ reached Herat on his journey to Makkah, the Amīr known as Hussain arranged a gathering in his honour. At the assembly the Amīr asked him, “Since with your Presence there is neither audible Dhikr, nor voyaging, nor audition of special music and poetry, what is your path?” He answered, “The pure words of the tribe of ‘Abd ul-Khaliq Ghujduwani, which are ‘retreat within the crowd,’ and we follow in their Way”. “What is retreat within the crowd?” the Amīr asked. “Outwardly to be with the people while inwardly to be with Allāh,” said Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā’ al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ. The Amīr expressed surprise and asked whether this was actually possible. Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā’ al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ replied that if it were not possible Allāh ﷻ Most High would not have indicated it in a Qur’ānic verse which describes those who are not distracted from the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ even while in the marketplace:

“Men whom neither business nor profit distracts from the recollection of Allāh” ¹⁹

This is the practice of the Naqshbandī Ṭarīqa.

Ḥaḍrat Imām Rabbānī, Mujaddid Alf Thānī Shaykh Ahmad Farooqi Sirhindi قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ, said:

¹⁹ Holy Qur’an 24:37

“Retreat within the crowd is derived from travelling in the homeland since if travelling in the homeland is properly accomplished, then retreat within the crowd will properly occur. The seeker within the diversity of the crowd travels in his own land, and the diversity of the horizons finds no way into the meditation cell of his inner self. This treasure will manifest with difficulty at the beginning and with no difficulty in the end. And in this tariqa it is the portion of the beginning while in other paths it is at the end. This is so because the treasure is derived from travelling within the self (with presence in the moment), which is at the beginning of this path, while travelling on the horizons takes place simultaneously. This is the opposite of the other paths which make the travelling on the horizons the beginning and the travelling within the self the end.”

Yād Kard* (Remembrance)

This is the concentration on the Divine Presence.

For the Naqshbandī traveller, remembrance is practiced in the silent Dhikr.

This means to perform the Dhikr of Allāh ﷻ, whether this is the name “Allāh” or Nafy wa-Ithbāt.

Bāz Ghasht* (Returning from distraction, Going Back)

This is to travel in one direction. The return to Allāh ﷻ. Single-minded pursuit of Divine truth.

This means banishing and dispelling every thought, good or bad, that comes to mind involuntarily during the Dhikr. When performing Dhikr, the heart is required to attain the calm contentment of:

“Oh Allāh ﷻ, my goal is You and Your good pleasure; it is nothing else!”

So long as there is space left in the heart for other interests, such calm contentment cannot take shape, and the remembrance cannot be genuine. Even if this tranquillity cannot be attained at the outset, one must not abandon the remembrance, and it is necessary to persevere in its performance until this feeling is acquired.

The meaning of 'Bāz Ghasht' is the return to Allāh ﷻ The Exalted and Almighty, by showing complete surrender and submission to His Will. Complete humbleness in giving Him all due praise. The reason, mentioned by Rasūl Allāh ﷺ in his invocation, "ma dhakarnaka haqqa dhikrika ya Madhkar" ("We did not Remember You as You Deserve to be Remembered, O Allāh"), is that the seeker cannot come to the presence of Allāh ﷻ in his Dhikr, and cannot manifest the Secrets and Attributes of Allāh ﷻ in his Dhikr, if he does not make Dhikr with Allāh's support.

During Dhikr stop occasionally to make dua in which you express your desire for the pleasure of Allāh ﷻ. This process is very beneficial when combined with the Dhikr. The seeker should never forget this lesson.

Nigāh Dāsht (Attentiveness)

This is the struggle with all distracting thoughts.

Be watchful. Be aware of what catches your attention. Learn to withdraw your attention from undesirable objects. This is also expressed as “be vigilant in thought and remember yourself.”

Taṣawwuf is to safeguard the heart from bad thoughts and protect it from low inclinations. Whoever accomplishes these two goals will know his heart, and whoever knows his heart will know his Lord. Rasūl Allāh ﷺ has said, “Whoever knows himself knows His Lord.”

The seeker should remain careful not to let dangerous thoughts enter the heart, otherwise it will become difficult to eliminate them. Once all dangerous thoughts have left the heart, one achieves tranquility and the state of Fanā’-e-Qalb (annihilation of the heart).

Yād Dāsht (Continued Remembrance, Perpetual Invocation)

Constant awareness in the presence of Allāh ﷻ. “The complete experience of Divine contemplation, achieved through the action of objective love”.

Those on this path maintain that when inner love is always present in one’s dealings with the world, then one has achieved this mindfulness.

This is the last stage before transformation is completed. The seeker becomes aware that his loss of “self” will be compensated by objective love. The humiliation (abnegation of self) that leads to this stage ceases to affect the seeker, for he discovers the unlimited joy that Truth (al-Ḥaqq) will bring.

Using silent (Khafi) Dhikr, remember or “make mention” of the Divine name “Allāh”, remaining attentive and alert, so that the heart becomes aware of the presence of Truth (al-Ḥaqq).

Wuqūf-e- 'Adadī* (Awareness of Numbers)

An expression meaning the observation of the number of individual repetitions of the Dhikr.

According to Ḥaḍrat Sayyid Muḥammad Bahā' al-Dīn Naqshband al-Bukhārī Sahib قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُؤُوهُ :

“The observation of the number of repetitions of the Dhikr of the heart is for gathering thoughts/mental activity which are scattered.”

When doing Nafy wa-Ithbāt, being attentive and inclining to an odd number of cycles is what is meant here.

Wuqūf-e-Qalbī* (Awareness of the Heart)

The heart becomes aware of Allāh ﷻ. This marks the awakening of Divine love. The individual becomes aware that his existence is an obstacle to his final transformation and he no longer fears to sacrifice it because he sees for himself that he will gain infinitely more than he loses.

There is awareness of the heart itself. In other words, the seeker, during the time of the Dhikr, is attentive to the cone-shaped heart which is the “seat of subtlety,” and prevents it from becoming unaware during the Dhikr.

Turning your attention toward the latīfa Qalb is what is meant here.

Annihilation (Fanā)

This refers to the forgetting of everything besides Allāh ﷻ (complete subjugation of the animal self) in such a way that the person is no longer disturbed by any urge of desire. No action will be against the commandment of Allāh ﷻ.

Everlasting (Baqā)

Baqā’ means to restore the self in a new consciousness of the spirit not of the flesh. The urges of the self are from the Allāh-controlled spiritual region where the source of actions is no longer the violation of others’ rights, but instead one becomes beneficial to humanity and the creation. The condition after complete annihilation (Kāmil Fanā') is referred to as “Everlasting” (Baqā').

Attention of the Shaykh (Tawajju)

Projecting ones Qalbi strength on another's heart is referred to as Tawajju.

Traveller and the journey

The journey (Sulūk) refers to the actual journey in attaining a connection and nearness to Allāh ﷻ. The person who keeps to the path of truth and attains the different stages prescribed by the Silsila is referred to as a Traveller (Sālik).

The States

There are ten stages in reaching the state of Walāyah, the station of friendship with Allāh ﷻ. These are:

State	Description
Tawbah	Repentance
Inābah	Penitence
Zuhd	Devotion
Qanā'ah	Contentment

Wara'	Caution or Carefulness
Ṣabr	Patience
Shukr	Gratitude
Tawakkul	Perfect trust in Allāh ﷻ
Taslīm	Acceptance of the will of Allāh ﷻ
Riḍā	Pleasure of Allāh ﷻ

Without achieving these ten stages, one cannot attain Walāyah.

What is Wajd?

Imam Ghazali قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوْحِهِ writes in his book that,

*“The state that is created with a sincere intention and with the eagerness to meet Allāh ﷻ is referred to as Wajd.”*²⁰

There are a number of references in the Holy Qur’ān with regards to Wajd. Some of these are mentioned here.

Surah Al-Zumar²¹:

“Allāh has sent down the best Book that from beginning to the end is alike (in beauty and fairness), having twofold descriptions (promise of reward and threat of punishment) at which do shudder the skins of those who fear their Lord, then their skins and hearts soften inclining towards the remembrance of Allāh”

Ḥaḍrat Abū Qatādah رضي الله عنه relates that this is the state of the Awliyā’ (friends) of Allāh ﷻ, that with the Dhikr of Allāh ﷻ their hair stand on end, bodies begin to swoon and their hearts are filled with tranquillity.²²

Surah Al-Anfal ²³:

“Only they are believers whose hearts tremble when Allāh is mentioned, and when His signs are recited to them, their faith gets increased and upon their Lord they put their trust.”

There are many Ḥadīth on the matter of Wajd. It is narrated by Ḥaḍrat Anas ؓ that the Habashites were present in front of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ and “they were dancing” and saying Muḥammadun Abdun Salih (i.e. Muḥammad ﷺ the righteous slave). Rasūl Allāh ﷺ asked: “What are they saying?” They said “Muḥammadun Abdun Salih”.²⁴

It is further related that: Rasūl Allāh ﷺ upon seeing their state did not tell them to stop or reprimand them.

²² Noor al-Irfan

²³ Holy Qur’ān 8:2

²⁴ Musnad of Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal (Volume 3, Page 152):

Ḥaḍrat ‘Alī ﷺ said: “I went to Rasūl Allāh with Ja‘far and Zayd, Rasūl Allāh said to Zayd “You are my freedman”. At this Zayd began to hop on one leg around Rasūl Allāh, Rasūl Allāh, said to Ja‘far “you resemble me in my physical form and my character”, at this Ja‘far also began to hop behind Zayd, then Rasūl Allāh said “‘Alī You are from me and I am from you”, at this I also started to hop behind Ja‘far.”
25

Imam al Ḥāfiḍ al-Bayhaqī قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ رُوْهُ in explanation of this ḥadīth said:

“In this (ḥadīth) is saḥih proof and permissibility of hopping (dancing) which includes rising up or jumping in a state of joy, and also that of doing “RAQS” being similar to it which is also allowed – And Allāh knows best.” ²⁶

Imam Sa‘īd bin Mūsāyab قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ رُوْهُ (died 94 AH) explains that the Arabs very often used the word Saleem in the meaning of Ladeegh (one who was bitten by a snake or scorpion) and this is exactly the case in the phrase Qalb-e-Saleem. Thus Qalb-e-Saleem is the heart which, due to extreme fear for Allāh ﷻ, is like the heart of a person who has just been bitten by a scorpion.

²⁵ Musnad of Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal (Volume 1, Page 537, Hadith 857):

²⁶ Sunnan al Baihaqi al Kubra (15/333)

The great scholar and faqih Ibn ‘Ābidīn قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ رَوْدَهُ said in his fatwa on the permissibility of loud Dhikr, our master al-Junayd al Baghdadi قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ رَوْدَهُ was asked:

*“Certain people indulge in wajd or ecstatic behaviour, and sway with their bodies.” He replied: “Leave them to their happiness with Allāh ﷻ. They are the ones whose affections have been smashed by the path and whose breasts have been torn apart by effort, and they are unable to bear it. There is no blame on them if they breathe awhile as a remedy for their intense state. If you tasted what they taste, you would excuse their exuberance.”*²⁷

²⁷ Seventh Letter in Shifa’ al-`Alil wa Ball al-Ghalil fi Hukm al-Wasiya bi al-Khatamat wa al-Tahalil (page 172-173)

Instructions for a beginner starting on the path

It is important for the beginner in the Naqshbandī path to ensure that until they have not completed their training, only the Farḍ ṣalāh and Sunnah Mu'akkadah should be observed. The Dhikr of Allāh ﷻ is greater than any other daily worship such as performing Nafl ṣalāh, reading Durūd Sharīf, reading the Holy Qur'ān. When the training is complete, then the performance of all such daily worship proves to be very helpful to the Dhikr.

Ḥaḍrat Imām Rabbānī, Mujaddid Alf Thānī Shaykh Ahmad Farooqi Sirhindi قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ بِرُوحِهِ states in his Maktūb (letter) no. 105, paragraph 1:

“When wisdom dictates that until a patient does not recover sufficiently from an ailment, heavy foods will not be beneficial, even when it is protein in the form of meat. In fact, in such a state, strong high-energy foods can aggravate the illness. The doctors (Mushāyikh) for the diseases of the heart also recommend that the cure for the disease be acquired first. In this way the person is freed from the desires of the ego”.

It is also recorded in Maktūb no. 84, paragraph 3:

“The traveller should ensure that he/she makes Dhikr at all times, providing it has been adopted from a Kāmil Murshid. One should at all times do Dhikr in such a way that all worship besides Fard ṣalāh and Sunnat-e-Muakkadah is postponed, to the extent of even reading the Holy Qur’ān and all Nawāfil (supererogatory) worship. With or without wuḍū’, standing, sitting or lying down, one should be constantly engaged in Dhikr. The moments when walking, eating, and at the time of sleep should not be void of Dhikr”.

Lessons of the Silsila-e-Chishtīa Saifia

First Lesson

The first lesson is هُوَ “hū”.

The method of Dhikr:

- Start هُوَ “hū” from latīfa Ruh,
- and from Ruh to Qalb,
- and from Qalb to Sirr,
- and from Sirr to Akhfa,
- and from Akhfa to Khafi,
- and then back to Ruh in a round circle. After every 100 times, say جَلَّ جَلَالُهُ “Jalla Jalāluhū”

Keep circulating the Dhikr in this way and imagine the Dhikr to be a sword that is removing anything that is besides the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ from the inside. Once this image is established, then start to read the Dhikr on the tongue. At the same time, imagine a spiral staircase around the outside of a tower without knowing the height of the tower. Whilst climbing the tower, one should try to gain fayz from the meaning of the name or attribute of هُوَ “hū”. There is no limit to this process.

Second Lesson

The second lesson is الله هُوَ “Allāh Hū”.

The method of Dhikr:

- Imagine the word الله “Allāh” on the latīfa-e-Qalb,
- And imagine the word هُوَ “Hū” on latīfa-e-Ruh,
- Repeat the words الله هُوَ “Allāh Hū” on the tongue. After every 100 times, say جَلَّ جَلَالُهُ “Jalla Jalāluhū”

Keep circulating the Dhikr in this way and imagine a spiral staircase around the inside of a tower without knowing the limit. Whilst climbing the tower, one should try to gain fayz from the meaning of the names or attributes الله هُوَ “Allāh Hū”. There is no limit to this process, but be mindful that الله “Allāh” is a separate command to هُوَ “Hū”, and as such there is a separation between the two. Remember to pronounce the ه “Ha” in الله “Allāh”.

Third Lesson

The third lesson is هُوَ الله “Hū Allāh”.

The method of Dhikr:

- Imagine the word هُوَ “Hū” on latīfa-e-Ruh,

- And imagine the word الله “Allāh” on the latīfa-e-Qalb,
- Repeat the words هُوَ اللهُ “Hū Allāh” on the tongue. After every 100 times, say جَلَّ جَلَالُهُ “Jalla Jalāluhū”

Keep circulating the Dhikr in this way and imagine a tower without knowing the limit. One must ascend the inside of this tower trying to gain ḥayz from the meaning of the names or attributes هُوَ اللهُ “Hū Allāh”. There is no limit to this process

Fourth Lesson

The fourth lesson is:

أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ الْحَقُّ لَيْسَ الْهَادِي إِلَّا هُوَ

“Anta al-hādī anta al-ḥaqq, laysa al-hādī illā hū.”

The method of Dhikr:

- Imagine the words أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ “Anta al-hādī anta” on the latīfa-e-Qalb,
- Imagine the words الْحَقُّ “al-ḥaqq” on latīfa-e-Akhfa,

- Imagine the words لَيْسَ الْهَادِي laysa al-hādī again starting on latīfa-e-Akhfa going back to the latīfa-e-Qalb with اِلَّا illā,
- And finishing with هُوَ hū on latīfa-e-Ruh,
- Repeat the words
 أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ الْحَقُّ لَيْسَ الْهَادِي اِلَّا هُوَ “Anta al-hādī anta al-ḥaqq, laysa al-hādī illā hū.”
 on the tongue.

Keep circulating the Dhikr in this way. There is no limit to this process.

The first three lessons relate to ascending, whilst the Forth lesson is the opposite and relates to descending.

The murāqabat of the Naqshbandī Silsila are also adequate for the Chishtī Silsila.

Lessons of the Silsila-e-Qādirīa Saifia

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ وَأُتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

“Astagfirullāha alladhī lā ilāha illā Huwa al-Ḥayyu al-Qayyūmu wa-atūbu ilayh”

This Istighfār is not included in the eight lessons; nevertheless, the teachers of this Qādirī Silsila stress its importance to their pupils for the purification of the nafs.

This Istighfār should be read 313 times, 30 to 40 minutes before sun rise and just after the time of Tahajjad, which is referred to as Saḥar, as Allāh ﷻ said in reference to the high status of the Mu'min:

وَبِالْأَسْحَارِ هُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ

“Wa-bil-ashāri hum yastagfirūn”

And at Saḥar time they ask for forgiveness.²⁸

وَالْمُسْتَغْفِرِينَ بِالْأَسْحَارِ

“Wa-l-mustagfirīna bil-ashār”

²⁸ Qur'an 51:18

And the ones who ask for forgiveness at the time of Saḥar.

First Lesson

The first lesson is Nafy wa-Ithbāt:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُولُ اللَّهِ

“lā ilāha illā Allāh, Muḥammadu rasūlu Allāh”

Begin the kalima with لَا “lā” starting at latīfa-e-Qalb and take it to the right shoulder. Next take إِلَ “ilā” to latīfa-e-Qaalbi and then take ه “ha” to the left shoulder and using إِلَّ “illā Allāh”, stike latīfa-e-Qalb with as much force as you can, so that the activity reaches the remaining laṭā’if. Likewise, this kalima should also be uttered with the tongue in the same way and one of the following four meanings must be kept in mind during the Dhikr:

لَا مَعْبُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā ma ‘būda illā Allāh”

None worshipped except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَقْصُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā maqṣūda illā Allāh”

None intended except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَوْجُودَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā mawjūda illā Allāh”

None present except Allāh ﷻ.

لَا مَطْلُوبَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

“Lā maṭlūba illā Allāh”

None desired except Allāh ﷻ.

Repeat this cycle and keep count using the fingers or a tasbeih. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, complete the Kalima, مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ “Muḥammadur Rasūlullāh” on latīfa-e-Akhfa. This is an ascending lesson which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Second Lesson

The second lesson is إِلَّا اللَّهُ “Illā Allāhu”.

The second lesson is like the first. Begin by reciting the kalima, لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ “Lā ilāha illā Allāh” once. Then using إِلَّا اللَّهُ “illā Allāh Hū”, hit latīfa-e-Qalb. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, complete the Kalima مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُولُ اللَّهِ “Muḥammadur Rasūlullāh” on latīfa-e-Akhfa. This is an ascending lesson which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Third Lesson

The third lesson is اللَّهُ “Allāh”.

Begin by reciting اللَّهُ جَلَّ جَلَالُهُ “Allāh Jalla Jalālahū” once. Then using اللَّهُ “Allāh”, strike latīfa-e-Qalb. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, recite جَلَّ جَلَالُهُ “Jalla Jalālahū” out aloud aswell on the latīfa-e-Qalb. This is an ascending lesson, which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Fourth Lesson

The fourth lesson is هُوَ “Hū”.

Begin by reciting هُوَ جَلَّ جَلَالَهُ “Hū Jalla Jalāla” once. Then using the kalima هُوَ “Hū” start at latīfa-e-Ruh, next take it to latīfa-e-Qalb, after that to latīfa-e-Sirr and then to latīfa-e-Akhfa, and then to latīfa-e-Khafi, finally bring it back to latīfa-e-Ruh once again. هُوَ “Hū” should also be recited out aloud in this way. The kalima هُوَ “Hū” should be imagined as a sword that is cutting away everything, accept the remembrance of Allāh ﷻ in a circular motion, like a wheel that penetrates each latīfa. Once this picture has formed in the mind, imagine a tower without a fixed limit from the summit of the ‘Arsh to an undetermined point. Imagine ascending a staircase on the outside of the tower that has no fixed limit, and at the same time gain fayz from the attributes of the name هُوَ “Hū”. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, recite جَلَّ جَلَالٌ “Jalla Jalāla” out aloud. This is an ascending lesson which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Fifth Lesson

The fifth lesson is a murāqaba.

This should be performed after the Fajr and ‘Aṣr prayers. Whilst sitting facing al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah, hold your breath and begin by focusing ﷻ “Allāh” on latīfa-e-Qalb. Keep repeating ﷻ ﷻ “Allāh Allāh” in this way, there is no fixed duration for holding the breath, and no upper limit for the repetition, nor is there a need to keep count. Imagine your Qalb facing, and opposite, to the Blessed Qalb Mubarak of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ. You must acquire Nūr directly from the Blessed Qalb Mubarak of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ in this way. The time limit for this murāqaba is five (5) minutes or the time it takes to read four (4) Rakah ṣalāh.

Sixth Lesson

The sixth lesson is اللَّهُ هُوَ “Allāh Hū”.

Begin by reciting اللَّهُ هُوَ جَلَّ جَلَالٌ “Allāh Hū Jalla Jalāla” once. Then using the kalima اللَّهُ “Allāh” start at latīfa-e-Qalb, next using the kalima هُوَ “Hū” strike latīfa-e-Ruh, اللَّهُ هُوَ “Allāh Hū” should also be recited out aloud in this way. Using the Dhikr, imagine ascending a staircase on the outside of a tower that has no fixed limit, and at the same time gain fayz from the attributes of the name اللَّهُ هُوَ “Allāh Hū”. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, recite جَلَّ جَلَالٌ “Jalla Jalāla” out aloud. This is an ascending lesson which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Seventh Lesson

The seventh lesson is هُوَ اللَّهُ “Hū Allāh”.

Begin by reciting هُوَ اللَّهُ جَلَّ جَلَالٌ “Hū Allāh Jalla Jalāla” once. Then using the kalima هُوَ “Hū” start at latīfa-e-Ruh, next using kalima اللهُ “Allāh” strike latīfa-e-Qalb, هُوَ اللهُ “Hū Allāh” should also be recited out aloud in this way. Using the Dhikr, imagine ascending a staircase on the inside of a tower that has no fixed limit, and at the same time gain ḥayz from the attributes of the name هُوَ اللهُ “Hū Allāh”. After every hundredth (100th) cycle, recite جَلَّ جَلَالٌ “Jalla Jalāla” out aloud. This is an ascending lesson which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times.

Eighth Lesson

The eighth lesson is:

أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ الْحَقُّ لَيْسَ الْهَادِي إِلَّا هُوَ

“Anta al-hādī anta al-ḥaqq, laysa al-hādī illā hū”.

The method of Dhikr:

- Imagine the words أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ “Anta al-hādī ant” on the latīfa-e-Qalb,
- Imagine the words الْحَقُّ “al-ḥaqq” on latīfa-e-Akhfa,
- Imagine the لَيْسَ الْهَادِي “laysa al-hādī” again starting on latīfa-e-Akhfa going back to the latīfa-e-Qalb with إِلَّا “illā”,
- And finishing with هُوَ “hū” on latīfa-e-Ruh,

- Repeat the words:

أَنْتَ الْهَادِي أَنْتَ الْحَقُّ لَيْسَ الْهَادِي إِلَّا هُوَ

“Anta al-hādī anta al-ḥaqq, laysa al-hādī illā hū”.

on the tongue.

This is a descending lesson (waiting for an instruction) which should be repeated one thousand (1000) times. The focus must be on acquiring an instruction.

Ninth Lesson

The ninth lesson is the “Durūd Sharīf”.

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى مُحَمَّدٍ وَّآلِهٖ وَعِتْرَتِهٖ بِعَدَدِ كُلِّ مَعْلُوْمٍ لَّكَ

“Allāhumma ṣalli ‘alā Muḥammadin wa ‘ālihī wa

‘itrīhī bi- ‘adadi kulli ma ‘lūmin lak”

The most excellent procedure is to apply ‘Iṭr (oil-based perfume) and whilst facing al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah begin by focusing this Durūd Sharīf on latīfa-e-Akhfa as well as reciting it with the tongue:

The focus should be to receive fayz from the Blessed latīfa-e-Akhfa of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ.

Applying 'Iṭr and facing a direction other than al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah is also permissible. In this way it is also permissible to lean on a pillow, but one must be careful not to have the legs stretched out. The teachers of the Qādirī Silsila also mention that it is not permissible to conduct this lesson whilst walking and without wuḍū'. This is due to the fact that conducting this lesson whilst walking is considered to be disrespectful and not having wuḍū' reduces the blessing that one receives. The Durūd Sharīf of the lovers and mystic travellers is heard by the Rasūl Allāh ﷺ. This lesson should be repeated one thousand (1000) times a day.

Lessons of the Silsila-e-Suhrawardīa Saifia

The lessons of the Silsila-e-Suhrawardīa Saifia are the same as the lesson for the Silsila-e-Qādirīa Saifia. Even the method and order are the same except for the murāqaba. The Qādirī murāqaba is minimum five (5) minutes long. However, the Suhrawardī murāqaba is at least twenty (20) minutes long, and on occasion can be much longer, as there is no upper limit. In Ṭarīqa-e-Qādirīa the murāqaba is the fifth (5th) lesson, whereas, in Ṭarīqa-e-Suhrawardīa the murāqaba is the ninth (9th) lesson. The method of performing the murāqaba is also different and is as follows:

Ninth Lesson

The ninth lesson is a murāqaba.

After completing all of the lessons for Ṭarīqa-e-Suhrawardīa Sharif, apply ʿIṭr (oil-based perfume) and whilst facing al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah begin by closing the eyes (this is a condition for the murāqaba) and start doing Dhikr in each latīfa in order, with zeal and joy.

The next step is to imagine that all the holy souls of the Anbiyā' ﷺ are present with you. Next invite the pure souls of the Awliyā' ikrām قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سُبُوهُ, the Angels of the heavens ﷺ and then the Angels of the Earth ﷺ. Once you are able to imagine everyone to be present and doing Dhikr, place the blessing of your own Dhikr as a gift on top of your head and start your journey to al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah with the rest of the present group. Continue with your Dhikr in your laṭā'if in a joyful way until you reach al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah.

Once at the most holy Rawḍah Mubarak (The Blessed Tomb) of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ, imagine Rasūl Allāh ﷺ to come out of his most holy Rawḍah Mubarak and give the gathering of Dhikr a formation of which Rasūl Allāh ﷺ is the leader. Imagine your Murshid (teacher) on the right hand side of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ, then present Rasūl Allāh ﷺ with the gift that you have brought and also shake His Blessed hand. Next sit in front of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ in the gathering and continue your Dhikr on your laṭā'if in the prescribed order. In this way the remaining members of the gathering will also do Dhikr in the prescribed order. Whilst in Dhikr, one should continue to receive fayz from the Blessed chest of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ.

This should be continued for a period of at least twenty (20) minutes, or as long as one is able to, with zeal.

Once you decide on finishing the murāqaba, first seek permission from Rasūl Allāh ﷺ, and then by retracing your steps by walking backwards retreat to your home (the place where you started your murāqaba). In this way the holy and pure souls of your companions on this journey will also return to their place of origin. Once you reach home, finish your murāqaba.

Please note that this not a hypothetical (made up) process, in fact the people of kashf (spiritual vision) have described this process through their kashf. For those people who have not been given the blessing of kashf should know that they have obtained the fayz of Rasūl Allāh ﷺ.

Khatam-e-Khawajgan

It should be known that after the praise of Allāh ﷻ and the sending of Durūd Sharīf on Rasūl Allāh ﷺ, the Khatam-e-khawajgan has been mentioned towards the end of Khazinat al-Asrar Jalilah al-Adhkar ²⁹, and is known to have many benefits. These include, overcoming calamity, distress and difficulties. It is also beneficial when sending Īṣāl-i Thawāb to the deceased Muslims. The method of reading khatam-e-khawajgan is mentioned below:

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا مُنْجِيَّ الْغَرَقٰى

Allāhumma yā munjiya l-gharqā.

O Allāh, O Saviour of those sinking in overwhelming distress.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا مُنْقِذَ الْهٰلِكِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā munqidha l-halkā.

O Allāh, O Rescuer of the perishing.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا مُسَبِّبَ الْاَسْبَابِ

Allāhumma yā musabbiba l-asbāb.

O Allāh, O Controller of all causes.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا مُفَتِّحَ الْاَبْوَابِ

Allāhumma yā mufattiḥa l-abwāb.

O Allāh, O Opener of doors.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا خَيْرَ النَّاصِرِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā khayra n-nāṣirīn.

O Allāh, O Best of helpers.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا خَيْرَ الرَّازِقِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā khayra r-rāziqīn.

O Allāh, O Best of providers.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا خَيْرَ الْفَاتِحِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā khayra l-fātiḥīn.

O Allāh, O Best of openers.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā arḥama r-rāḥimīn.

O Allāh, O Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا اَكْرَمَ الْاَكْرَمِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā akrama l-akramīn.

O Allāh, O Most Generous of the generous.

[100x]

اَللّٰهُمَّ يَا غِيَاثَ الْمُسْتَغِيْثِيْنَ

Allāhumma yā ghiyātha l-mustaghīthīn.

O Allāh, O Rescuer of those seeking desperate help.

[1x]

اَغْنِنَا بِفَضْلِكَ وَبِكَرَمِكَ يَا اَكْرَمَ الْاَكْرَمِيْنَ، وَيَا
اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ، وَصَلَّى اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عَلٰى خَيْرِ خَلْقِهِ مُحَمَّدٍ
وَآلِهِ وَاَصْحَابِهِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ، بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ

Aghithnā bi-faḍlika wa bi-karamika yā akrama l-akramīn, wa yā arḥama r-rāḥimīn, wa ṣallā llāhu ta ‘ālā ‘alā khayri khalqihi Muḥammadin wa ālihi wa aṣḥābihi ajma ‘īn, bi-raḥmatika yā arḥama r-rāḥimīn.

Rescue us through Your bounty and generosity, O Most Generous of the generous, and O Most Merciful of the merciful. And may Allāh, the Exalted, send blessings upon the best of His creation, Muḥammad ﷺ, and upon his family and all his companions, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.

Closing Du’a

[1x]

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ، وَالصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلٰى
خَيْرِ خَلْقِهِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَاٰلِهِ وَاَصْحَابِهِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ

Al-ḥamdu lillāhi rabbi l-‘ālamīn, waṣ-ṣalātu wa s-salāmu ‘alā khayri khalqihi Muḥammadin wa ālihi wa aṣḥābihi ajma ‘īn.

All praise is due to Allāh, Lord of the worlds, and peace and blessings be upon the best of His creation, Muḥammad ﷺ, and upon his family and all his companions.

O Allāh, comfort us in the loneliness of our graves.

O Allāh, have mercy upon us through the Noble Qur’ān, and make it for us a leader, a light, a guidance, and a mercy.

O Allāh, remind us of what we have forgotten from it, teach us what we are ignorant of, and grant us the recitation of it during the hours of the night and the hours of the day; and make it for us a proof, O Lord of the worlds.

O Allāh, make the Qur'ān the spring of our hearts, the light of our eyes, the relief of our sorrow, and the removal of our distress.

O Allāh, convey and deliver the reward of this recitation to the soul of our master, the Noble Messenger ﷺ, and to the souls of all the Prophets and Messengers — upon them be blessings and peace — and to the souls of all the Family of the Noble Messenger ﷺ and the Companions, the Followers, and those who followed them, may Allah the Exalted be pleased with them all.

And to the souls of all the great spiritual masters of the four ṭarīqahs — especially:

To the soul of Shaykh Muḥammad Bahā'u d-dīn Shāh Naqshband (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Shaykh 'Abdu l-Qādir al-Jilānī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Shaykh Mu'īn ad-dīn Chishtī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Shaykh Shahābu d-dīn as-Suhrawardī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Imām Rabbānī, the Renewer of the Second Millennium, Shaykh Aḥmad al-Fārūqī Sirhindī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Imām Muḥammad Ma'ṣūm al-Awwal (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of our Shaykh, our Master, our Guide, and our Intercessor with Allāh — our master Imām Khurāsānī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Mawlānā Muḥammad Hāshim Samangānī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Shāh Rasūl aṭ-Ṭāliqānī (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Uwais Qarni (may Allāh's mercy be upon him), and to the soul of Khiḍr, upon our Prophet, upon him be blessings and peace.

and to the souls of all our spiritual guides, and to our parents and ancestors, and to our spouses and children, and to our brothers and sisters, and to our loved ones, and to those who have a right upon us, and to all Muslim men and women, and all believing men and women, both the living and the dead among them — indeed, You (Allāh) are the One Who answers prayers.

Glorified is your Lord — the Lord of Honour and Power — above what they claim! Peace be upon the messengers, And praise be to Allah — Lord of all worlds.

Peer Syed Muhammad Ali Raza Bukhari Sahibs Ancestral History from Ahlulbayt

The opportunity to write about one's beloved teacher and guide confers a great privilege of its own. It gives me great pleasure to mention once again that my beloved teacher, Peer Syed Muhammad Ali Raza Bukhari Al-Saifi Sahib, has received Khilāfah in all four Salās, from Imam-e-Khurasani, Akhandzada Peer Saif-ur-Raḥmān (Pīr-e-Ārchī Mubārak Ṣāhib) قَدَسَ اللّٰهُ سِرُّهُ. Furthermore, Peer Sahib is from the Ahlulbayt, the descendants of our Beloved Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ. Peer Sahibs maternal and paternal bloodlines are both from the Ahlulbayt, meaning that Peer Sahib has the tremendous honour of being both a Hassani and Hussaini Syed.

Paternal Lineage

 Al-Saifi دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ

How perfect You are O Allāh, and I praise You.

I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped except You.

I seek Your forgiveness and turn to You in repentance.

O Allāh!

Forgive us our sins,
and efface our bad deeds,
and take our souls in the company of the righteous.

Āmīn

The reality of Islam is the complete submission to the command of Almighty Allah. The commandments of Islam apply to both the outward and inward state of the Muslim. One of the central and most important aspects of Islam is the Sufi teaching known as Tasawwuf. This book outlines the teachings of the Naqshbandi Mujaddidi Saifi Silsila, and serves as a guide for students of this discipline. Within it are the daily practices of all four spiritual paths (Naqshbandi, Chisti, Qadri and Soharwardi), as transmitted and taught by the eminent teacher and scholar, Hazrat Imam-e-Khurasani Akhondzadah Peer Saif-ur-Rahman (Peer-e-Archi Mubarakh Sahib) Rehmatullah Alaih.
